

ROTEIRO DE ESTUDOS 3º TRI – 3º ANO

1- Make a summary from texts aulas 35 à 46.

2- Complete the sentences with the Present Perfect form.

a- The boys (give) many problems.

b- It (be) warm this week.

c- They (prepare) a lot of food.

d- The pupils (study) for their exam.

e- The boy (fall) off his bike.

f- He (go) just out.

g- My grandmother (lose) weight.

h- We (want) always to visit Spain.

i- The sun (rise) . It's time to go.

j- Lucy (sing) in a chorus before.

3- Change the sentences from exercise 2 to negative form.

4- Change the sentences from exercise 2 to interrogative form.

5- Explain the use of 1st 2nd and 3rd conditional and make 10 sentences with each of them.

6- Read and change the following sentences to the passive voice.

We form the passive voice of present, past, and future tense sentences with the appropriate form of to be and the past participle of the main verb.

[Active]

[Passive]

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| • John delivers the mail. | The mail is delivered by John. |
| • John delivered the mail. | The mail was delivered by John. |
| John will deliver the mail. | The mail will be delivered by John. |

We form the passive voice of present perfect sentences with have (has) been and the past participle of the main verb.

- John has delivered the mail.
The mail has been delivered by John.

A. Change the following sentences from active to passive. Be sure to keep the same tense with each change.

1. John wrote that letter.
2. Fire destroyed that house.
3. The audience enjoyed the concert very much.
4. Mary took that book from the desk.
5. John will deliver that letter.
6. Mary has finished the report.
7. Mr. Smith will leave the tickets at the box office.
8. The messenger has just left a box of flowers for you.
9. The police easily captured the thief.
10. Many people attended the lecture.
11. The movie disappointed us very much.
12. Mr. Jones manages the export division.
13. John returned the money last night.
14. The little boy ate the cake.

